Monday, March 4. 1706.

From the Paris Gazette, dated Feb. 27,

Venice, February 6.

LE TTERS from the Bressan advise, that the Two Armies continue in their former Posts, and that they begin to want Forrage, especially the Imperialists, who dare not go far from their Quarters, being almost surrounded by the French. One of the Imperialists Parties of 250 Horse advancing the 15th of last Month to Calviano, within a League of Montechiaro, was attack'd and defeated by the Sieur de Cappy Brigadier that commands in Carnepedoie, who kill'd 38 of them and took 100 with a great Number of Horses. The 17th he surpriz'd and took a Guard of 12 Cuirassiers with their Horses. The 31st a Detachment commanded by the Sieur de Sauve, Lieutenant Colionel of the Regiment of Soucarriere, surpriz'd a Guard likewise near Montechiaro, kill'd 6 Men and carried off 8 Prisoners with the commanding Officer. The 1st of this Month, the Sieur de Cappy being on the March to lay a Bridge over the Chiese, met a Party of 200 German Horse, which he defeated taking 60 Prisoners. The next Day he caus'd a Bridge to be made over the Chiese 4 Miles below Montechiaro, over against Mezano, where he posted a Detachment of 500 Men. They write from the Polesines, that the French had made Incursions on this side of the Adige into the Paduan as far as Este, and in their return siez'd at Piacenzâ, six Miles from la Badia, above 2000 Sacks of Corn which the Imperialists had laid up there: That the French in the said Polesines being reinforc'd by a new Detachment of Foot, were working hard upon the Fortifications of la Badia, Canda, and the Posts they are posseſſ'd of along the Adige: That they are making new Works at Fratta on the Scortico: And that they have laid a new Bridge over the Adige, at Masi over against la Badia, in Order to incommod the Quarters of the Imperialists, whose Number increas'd at Bogoslo over against Carpi, at Bonavigo above Legnago, and thereabouts. Letters are arriv'd from Constantinople, which advise that great Rejoycings had been made there 7 Days together, for the Birth of the Grand Signior's first Son, who is nam'd Mahomet.

From the Amsterdam Gazette, March 5.

Venice, Feb. 20. The Officers of the 2 Armies in Lombardy, that came hither for the Diversions of the Carnival, are return'd to their Posts. The Count de Medavi, who has his Quarters at Mantua, has sent out several Detachments of French: On the other side, the Imperial Troops have newly made a great Forrage towards Castagneto, Paderno, and Rodevigo; and have sent a Detachment of Foot to reinforce 200 Horse that are advanc'd towards the Polesines, whither the French have likewise sent Reinforcements to their Troops.

Milan, Feb. 20. The Damage the Venetians suffer by the Troops of the 2 Armies that are on their Territories, is inexpressible. Those Troops have not only siez'd almost all the Provisions they could lay their Hands on, but having consum'd all the dry Wood for firing, have begun to cut down the Mulberry Trees and others. The French and Spaniards are fortifying the fordable Places of several Rivers, to render the Passage of the Imperialists difficult. A good Number of Recruits are come from France, but they are most of them young waxy Fellows, and many are sick of the Fatigue of marching, and several died by the Way. The Duke of Savoy has sent the Troops that serv'd in Nice to Coni, of which he has appointed the Count de Santenaz (who commanded in Montmelian) to be Governour.

From the Antwerp Courant, March 2.

Cazal, Feb. 14. Since the Duke de la Feuillade arriv'd here from Mantua and Milan, the Preparations for the Siege of Turin are carried on with double Diligence. The Duke of Vendome is expected back from France by the middle of next Month. All the Horses for the Train of Artillery are to be brought to Crescentino by the 2d of next Month.

From the Paris Letter, dated March 1.

Paris, March 1. The Duke of Vendome, who is return'd to Court from his Seat at Anet, has given Order for all the Officers that serve under him, to prepare to return forthwith to Italy; he being resolv'd to be in Lombardy before Prince Eugene, who we hear proposes to be with his Army by the End of this Month. The Duke de la Feuillade is expected at Court. The Count de Polastron, Lieutenant-General, died yesterday in the 67th year of his Age; he was Governour of St. Malo. The 23d of last Month, the King put on Mourning for the Death of Katherine late Queen Dowager of England.

Hague, March 5. Her Majesty of Great Britain having thought fit to send Order to Her Minister here, to acquaint the States General that She judges it expedient the Administrator of Holstein Gottorp should be restor'd to and continued in the Possession of the Castle and Territory of Eutin, till the Dispute between him and Prince Charles of Denmark be decided, their High Mightynesses have conform'd themselves to Her Majesty's Opinion, and have caus'd the said Expedient to be propos'd to the Envoy of Denmark: Who told the Deputies that deliver'd this Proposition to him, that he would acquaint the King his Master with it. When Count Van der Nath, who is very shortly expected from England, comes over hither, the Conferences will be renew'd upon this Affair; which it were heartily to be wish'd for the good of the common Cause might be determin'd amicably before the Campaign begins. The Palatine and Saxe-Gothan Troops, which England and Holland have hir'd to reinforce the Army of Prince Eugene of Savoy this Campaign, have not yet begun their march for Italy, the Princes their Masters making certain Demands of the Imperial Court, after England and Holland had comply'd with all that they ask'd of them. In the mean time the King of Prussia has notified to the States General, that tho' the Court of Vienna has not yet satisfied some Demands of his, he would not prejudice the common Cause by retarding the march of the Recruits and other Troops, which are on their way to compleat the 8000 Men he has in Italy in Prince Eugene's Army; but has sent them Order to make all possible Expedition thither.
